June 2011

Objectives of ARIDNB:

- 1) To establish, maintain and develop standards of knowledge and skill among its members.
- 2) To govern the practice of interior design in order that the public interest might be served.
- 3) To enhance public awareness of quality interior design and its importance to the human environment.
- 4) To initiate support and seek the expansion of quality interior design education and practice throughout New Brunswick and Canada.
- 5) To initiate support and seek the expansion of quality continuing education and professional upgrading among the members of The Association of Registered Interior Designers of New Brunswick.
- 6) To cooperate with and support the Interior Designers of Canada.
- 7) To operate in liaison and harmony with other design professions.
- 8) To establish, maintain and develop standards of professional ethics among its members.

Trade Affiliates are individuals, companies or associations engaged in the manufacturing, supplying or marketing of furnishings, materials, services or processes used by registered interior designers in the course of their practice. Trade Affiliates do not attend meetings of the Association, unless by invitation of the Executive Committee, but are invited to participate in Continuing Education events, special community events and social events that involve the participation of ARIDNB members.
